

The Intelligencer.

Office No. 25 and 27 Fayetteville Street.

Our Mr. Gilson wants to meet John Hutchinson, does he? Did Mr. Gilson ever read the little story of the man who met the bear?

The Irish-Americans are moving in Ohio too. They organized a Blaine and Logan club in Baltimore last night. Here is a fresh food for the editorial Register to mouth.

Don't somebody remark that "the tariff is not an issue in this campaign"? Why, brethren, it is Blaine's ghost—you can't keep it down. It means bread well buttered or no bread to boot.

On the second page of to-day's Intelligencer will be found a correct exhibit of the financial condition of the city of Wheeling. The exhibit shows how recklessly the city has been lied about.

That bowling friend of labor, E. Willis Wilson, who wants to be Governor, thinks the tariff is not an issue. The men who work for bread believe it is, and this is one thing which separates Mr. Wilson's outlook with deep-dyed gloom.

That's all right about the "infernal Radical party" and the tariff, Mr. Wilson. It is the infernal English doctrine of free trade that American workmen don't like, and that they are not in love with the party that endorses it.

Prof. Latham of the State University, has a hearing from a letter from Morgantown. The trouble with Prof. Latham is not that he doesn't talk well and plausibly, but that he has been shown to be a man not fit to be a teacher in any school.

The University of West Virginia returns to the old love and seeks publicity through the columns of the Intelligencer, which Chairman Berkeley so ruthlessly "cut" but one short year ago. If anything will stay the decay of the University, this stroke of business ought to do it. It might count for something more if the University would abandon the effort to build up an institution for "the sons of Southern gentlemen."

It seems that the Democratic stumpers in this State have raised the black flag against men who didn't train with them during the war and don't train with them now. There are men in this State, gallant Confederate soldiers when there was a Confederacy and good citizens now, who will recant this plan of campaign. They want outsiders to come into West Virginia and bring their money, and they know that this is not the way to get them.

Republicans will regret that by offering the party of Eustace Gibson by signing "Marching Through Georgia" and "John Brown's Body" at the Parkersburg Convention. They will be sorry that they didn't follow the Wheeling Convention and sing "Maryland, My Maryland," "Dixie" and "The Bonny Blue Flag." If Eustace will forgive us we'll try to beat him for Congress in the Fourth District—and we think we know an ex-Confederate who is sufficiently reconstructed to do the job for him.

The Hon. E. Windy Wilson, Democratic Jackson administration candidate for Governor, is going to kick the West Virginia Republicans over into Ohio—"after the opera is over." Ah, Windy, dear boy, after the election what dreams may come must give you pause. And then the times have changed since you stood up in the Legislature and voted against the Flick Amendment. "By my halloo!" the record is on you, and you can't get away from it. House Journal of 1870-71 tells the tale. And behold the father of the Flick Amendment proudly perched on our bright and beautiful ticket!

ALARMED by the special dispatches sent from this city, eastern financiers are inquiring whether the financial condition of the city is likely to impair the efficiency of the police and fire departments. A letter received in this city yesterday is printed elsewhere. In reply to these inquiries it may be said that the police and fire departments are in operation as usual, the men having no thought of leaving their posts, well knowing that they will be paid every dollar that is due them. Council meets to-night, and the loan ordinance to provide for the city's floating indebtedness will doubtless be considered. The city of Wheeling can command all the money it needs and at reasonable rates when it goes about it in the right way.

The Chicago Times has sent a man to Kentucky to manufacture a scandal against Blaine, and the man promptly fixed it up, locates it thirty years back, and supports it with affidavits without names. In the affidavits it is gravely set forth that in 1851 Blaine, then a teacher in Kentucky, was talked about as one who had probably married a young lady who was suspected of having gone wrong—though, nobody was able to say that she had gone wrong. We shall expect to see this racy and gaudy story crop out in those Democratic newspapers which have no great regard for decorum and feel that something must be done to divert attention from the charges brought against Cleveland by certain clergymen of Buffalo.

Across the New York Times printed the following special dispatch under the head "A Very Significant Straw": "WHEELING, W. VA., August 5.—A personal canvass of two wards of it is the Sixth and Eighth, the latter a Republican stronghold, has developed the fact that 150 German Republicans have bolted Blaine and intend to vote for Cleveland in November. This number constitutes 90 percent of the Irish Democratic vote, leaving a net loss large enough to insure the State electoral vote for Cleveland by 10,000 majority, whatever may happen in October. This dispatch went from the Register office. Will the Register say who made the "personal canvass"? And will it name a few of the 150 German Republicans in the Sixth and Eighth wards who intend to vote for C.—a very decent of them?"

WINDY WILSON WAILS

AND MOURNS AT PARKERSBURG.

After Chawing and Spitting Out Coarse Remarks at Washington—No Hallooing Cry in the Campaign of Abuse and Slandering—Gibson Expresses a Thrilling Desire.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., August 11.—E. W. Wilson spoke in the court house this afternoon for nearly two hours, and again this evening at the Academy of Music for more than two hours. Before the evening address he presented a handsome banner to the Young Men's Democratic Club from the ladies of the city. Wilson has not made a good impression on Parkersburg. He is coarse and abusive in his language, and handles the name of Judge Edwin Maxwell in an unbecomingly ungentlemanly manner. He took up the Chicago Republican platform and State platform and claimed for his party every good that they contained and charged the Republicans with universal and wholesale corruption. He spoke as he might be expected to speak when there was no one to follow. He started his argument on State affairs by declaring that the levy in this State had been twenty cents on each hundred dollars of taxable property since the Democratic ascendancy, excepting the year 1876, when only one cent was levied for the year. He then made general purposes and ten cents for general purposes. Various other glaring misstatements were made during the progress of his address. He labored hard in trying to explain away the fraudulent abstraction of money from the irrevocable school fund, but on this point he did not dwell long.

He did not endeavor to endorse the supplemental amendments and reamendments, but on the contrary made several sly hits at the administration. Notable among these was his mention of the abuse of the pardoning prerogative. Another noteworthy fact is that he did not mention or allude to the Cleveland case, but vented his spleen in heaping vile epithets upon James G. Blaine, whom he termed "the traitor." After working himself into a state of frenzy he became so rash as to claim that he would be the next Governor of the State, and that a majority of twenty thousand would make him such. Such language was not the body of his address.

A delicate matter for himself into a general purpose and ten cents for general purposes. Various other glaring misstatements were made during the progress of his address. Wilson and Gibson

At Huntington—The Letter Long to Meet Hutchinson and Barbee.

HUNTINGTON, August 7.—A Democratic ratification meeting consisting of about 200 men, women and children was held here last night. The speakers were Attorney General Walter E. W. Wilson, Senator Kenna and Eustace Gibson. Mr. Watts was the first speaker. He spoke briefly, pledging himself to support the ticket, though defeated for a place on it. Mr. Wilson spoke over an hour. Democracy and intense hatred of the Republican party, with a bitter attack on the tariff, were the chief elements of his speech. It would have disgraced a "hoodlum of the Sand Lot." Ranting his fingers through his hair and shaking his head, he denounced the Republican party as a "party of thieves, rascals, etc." He said in 1866 when "clouds of political oppression hovered over the State," the Democratic party organized because "we knew we were right." He said it is a great deal of statesmanship when the Democrats borrowed money from the school fund. The Democratic party had administered State affairs far more economically than the Republicans by 25 percent. The intelligent men of the Republican party who say there has not been an economical administration of State affairs, "lie, and I know they lie." He denominated the whole "Blaine caboodle," and pleaded with the Democrats not to be bought with Republican money. He closed by reciting the statistics of Democratic bribery at elections, and saying after "we have flattered out the Republican party flatterer than an elephant had tramped on them we will place the man on the top of our boots and kick them over into Ohio where they belong."

A large number of Democrats are disgusted, and threaten to bolt the head of the ticket. Senator Kenna made a manly and dignified speech—from a Democratic standpoint, a good one.

WHAT A LIE, MY COUNTRYMEN! Eustace Gibson closed the evening with a more temperate speech than was expected. He denied Atkinson's vindiction. He said the Republicans had insulted the Democrats by nominating Maxwell and retorting the nomination by singing "Marching Through Georgia" and "John Brown's Body." He extended a special challenge to G. W. Atkinson, Dr. Barbee and John A. Hutchinson. He wanted especially to meet the latter. He said it was openly charged from the platform at the Chicago Republican Convention that West Virginia elections were carried by Democrats by the use of the shot gun, murder and fraud, and not one of our Republican delegates had manliness enough to deny it.

With the exception of Senator Kenna all the speakers served notice that the "bloody shirt" was to be the campaign watchword.

DEER VALLEY POLITICS.

The Result of the Republican Convention.

DEER VALLEY, Pa., August 9.—A Blaine and Logan club was organized here last night, of 100 members, and with great enthusiasm. It was only a few years ago that there was only a corporal's guard of Republicans here, but now we have grown to near two hundred in Springfield

PROF. LATHAM GIVES HIS VERSION

Of the Lawlessness of the Charges Against Him, Together With a Defense of His Ideas Concerning the Conduct of the University.

Correspondence of the Intelligencer.

MORGANTOWN, W. VA., August 5.—I met Professor Latham this afternoon in his room in the Wallace House. He is a medium sized gentleman nearly fifty years of age, quick in his movements and extremely nervous in everything. He said he had not thus far given the newspaper attacks upon him or their comments upon his course as a teacher and citizen any attention, and had made no attempt to answer them either personally or through the medium of the press.

He considered that the crusade against him in the result of quite a number of causes, some imaginary and others undeniable (on his part). Picking up a copy of the Intelligencer containing an account of the proceedings of the meeting in his case he said: "It is looking over the list of the names of my accusers and the witnesses against me I find continued reason for astonishment.
